

NEW ALLIED OFFENSIVE ON WESTERN FRONT Hunt For German Spies in U. S. Reveals Facts That Would Startle World

STRIKE AT GLOBE, ARIZ.

With Russia proving that her army, now reestablished, can again strike, the offensive forces are apparently preparing to resume the forward movement on the western front.

Notable activity is developing in Belgium. Many small towns, and extraordinary efforts by her army to find out what is going on behind the British lines are reflected in the official statements.

Nine German Airplanes Wrecked

From the appearance the German fliers are having poor success. London's report last night, for instance, showed nine German airplanes put out of action to one lost by the British.

Germany Expects Big British Drive

That the British blow will fall north of Arras is the German expectation, according to Gen. von Stelz, the Prussian minister of war. He told a German recharging committee yesterday that the British apparently were preparing for an offensive on a large scale in this area.

In this connection it is to be noted that the British, in a local operation last night pushed their lines forward slightly on the hundred yard front southwest of Houthelbeke in Belgium.

BRITISH LINER CIVIL WAR BEGINS SINKS U-BOAT IN CHINA

AN ATLANTIC PORT, July 5.—Confidence that their run was uneventful, the liner Germania was surprised by the officers of a British liner which reached this port today. Attacked on the morning of June 26 by a U-boat which suddenly appeared about 100 yards off, the Germania's course was promptly changed. Almost at the same instant the stern gun was fired and a shell sped toward the submarine. A column of black smoke spurted into the air and the U-boat sank under the waves, leading the observers to believe a hit had been scored.

KEYES CASE BEFORE THE GRAND JURY TODAY

DEBHAM, July 5.—Evidence on which the state expects to obtain an indictment against Miss Harriet A. Varney, a hospital attendant, charged with the murder of Mrs. Pauline Keyes at Brookline on June 19 was presented to the grand jury in special session here today.

The state attorney, who is in charge of the case, said that the earlier police investigation and the inquest last week was observed and the names of witnesses summoned to testify were not revealed. Miss Varney, who is held without bail, is the county jail here, has shown no interest whatever in the case, and since her arrest at West Union ten days ago has refused to read newspaper accounts of the developments.

Notwithstanding the opinion expressed by the medical examiner of Brookline, that Mrs. Keyes killed herself, the state attorney has announced that he would attempt to establish the fact that Miss Varney killed the Keyes here and killed Mrs. Keyes through motives of jealousy.

Although witnesses have accounted for the movements of Mrs. Keyes, the dead woman's husband on the day of the shooting, Mrs. Keyes has been questioned at length concerning the statements of the witnesses. Miss Varney's family that the prisoner had been regarded for a number of years as his wife and that he had frequently visited at the home of her sister at West Union. A note said to have been written by Miss Varney and containing the statement that she had been with Keyes in Boston on the day of Mrs. Keyes' death, is in the possession of the police. Keyes accompanied the police to the home of Mrs. Arthur Morrison where Miss Varney was arrested, and sat with her on the return trip by automobile to Brookline.

Counsel for Miss Varney have announced that she has a complete alibi, but they have not been able to conclusively show that she was not in Brookline on the day Mrs. Keyes was found with bullet wounds in the head and heart.

Indications were that the grand jury inquiry would not be concluded today. More than a score of witnesses have been summoned and it was said by court officials that some of these would not be called until tomorrow. George H. Keyes was expected to testify after a thorough examination of all witnesses.

Federal Officials Unearth Information of Amazing Character—Sec. Baker Issues Statement Explaining War Department Censorship

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Officials, who for obvious reasons, cannot be quoted, declared today that if the government's activities against German spies in the United States could be published the news would startle the world.

While not admitting they are convinced that the spy system was entirely responsible for the massed submarine attack on the transport of Gen. Pershing's expedition it was said that the combined forces of the state, war, navy and justice departments were working in cohesion, and systematically unearthing information of an amazing character and of great value to the government.

It was pointed out that even with the strictest censorship of mails, cables and press the European allies have not been able to meet the situation that has been accomplished. The problem is of far greater magnitude in this country, with thousands of aliens, an immense border, and countless possible means of outside communication.

Secret service operations, necessarily carried on under cover, are given little or no publicity and this fact, officials say, gives rise to a surprise in the minds of correspondents. It was pointed out today that although the allies never have maintained any system of far reaching or effective espionage, Germany, even that country, despite her registration of individuals, her comparatively small border line and her comparatively small population, has been unable to prevent information of her military moves from reaching the outside world.

The realization of that is shown in her absolute suppression of all mail and cable communications for a considerable period preceding any important military movement.

SEC. BAKER ISSUES STATEMENT EXPLAINING OPERATION OF WAR DEPT. CENSORSHIP

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Secretary Baker today issued a statement explaining the operation of the war department censorship over cable dispatches from France dealing with the American troops, saying that the present arrangements are temporary and soon will be supplemented by a method that will not delay delivery.

"Pending the complete organization of Gen. Pershing's headquarters in France," the statement said, "with the arrival there of correspondents accredited to represent American newspapers, the temporary arrangements by which cables dealing with American troops are transmitted to the war department here for distribution will be continued."

"It is in the interest alike of the army and the newspapers to afford a certain reliance as to the propriety of the publication of messages from France. The arrangement is temporary and will be replaced speedily by a more direct method of dealing with this news. In the meantime an adequate force to deal promptly with the dispatches will be on hand 24 hours a day and will deliver the dispatches received in the order in which they come so that no disadvantage will result in anything beyond a brief delay in sending the dispatches to Washington and back to the center of distribution."

The statement also said that the press of readings over the press dispatches is being done by the committee on public information, much of it personally by George Creel, the chairman. Secretary Baker explained that the plan worked, but provided, however, that the opinion of Big. Gen. Pershing, censor for the war department, was sought, and that there was any doubt as to the advisability of publication of any item, Mr. Baker has made no effort to find legal authority for the establishment of the new censorship, no aid, and does not intend to ask for legislation in that regard.

"The secretary of war," he said, "by unanimous consent is empowered to take any steps necessary for the protection of American soldiers."

"The censorship arrangement to be set up by Maj. Gen. Pershing, it is understood, will be a permanent one, and will consist of a permanent staff of American troops stationed at New York in order to make certain that every press or personal dispatch had been read to prevent information of value to the enemy from leaking out."

Neither Secretary Baker nor Secretary Daniels would express any opinion today as to whether word of the departure of American troops from France had been transmitted to Germany in such time that a U-boat trap had been laid. Both indicated that they had no specific information on this point. It was made clear, however, that additional precautions to prevent such happenings were being considered, the nature of which was not disclosed.

Censorship has been in operation since Tuesday when by official order all news cables from France began to be diverted to the secretory of war for his inspection before being delivered to those to whom they were addressed.

ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS GETTING RECRUITS FOR MISS MARY SULLIVAN DIED SUDDENLY

IN POLICE COURT

REGULAR ARMY

The recruiting tent at Central and Jackson streets is evidently arousing a little enthusiasm among the young men of Lowell, for the enlistment men are coming in fast at the regular army station in Central street. Today six recruits were forwarded to Ft. Slocum, and two men were accepted to be forwarded at a later date. Those who left for the "front" today were Herbert B. Du Mesnil, 273 Merrimack street; Robert D. Ward, 191 Charles street; William H. Ramsay, 272 Merrimack street; Stanley A. Kowicz, 34 Charles street; Louis Wanswever, 64 Tyler street; and James H. Slade, 236 East Merrimack street. The two men accepted were George C. Chubb, New Britain, Conn., and Peter Tsangaris, Ayer.

Edward J. Higgins, Jr., son of Mr. Edward J. Higgins of 153 Pleasant street, has recently been appointed first sergeant in the 10th regiment of Infantry of the regular army at Ft. Benning, Ga. Higgins is a native of Lowell, and is a member of Lowell council of the Knights of Columbus, and also of the YM.C.A. He saw service in the U.S. Marine Corps before joining the army and was until recently stationed at Panama with the 10th regiment. Orders were given May 11, 1917, to leave Panama and to report to the U.S. Marine Corps before joining the army and was until recently stationed at Panama with the 10th regiment. FINAL DRIVE TO PASS FOOD CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Food legislation was considered today both in the senate and in conference.

Senator Chamberlain was ready when the senate met today to begin the final drive in an effort to put through the food control bill with the food survey measure, as it has passed both house and senate. He hoped to reach an agreement for a vote Saturday morning. In case no agreement was reached, the senate would have to stand by the food control bill and the food survey measure as a time for voting then the senate plans to offer his motion to shut off debate on the food control bill.

Delay in reaching a vote is due to the fight on the amendment offered by Senator George, which prohibits the distilling of spirits but gives the president discretion to deal with wines and beer.

WILL ENTERTAIN THE SOLDIER BOYS

A group of Lowell talent will journey to South Framingham tomorrow evening for the purpose of entertaining the Lowell soldiers who are at camp and a real musical treat is in store for the "boys in khaki."

The movement for the concert was started by Major Walter Jones, retired, who will see to the transportation of the talent in automobiles, while Commissioner James E. O'Donnell is looking after the details and the Major Kirtledge has cheerfully consented to allow the soldiers of his battalion to attend the event, which will be gratis, and he has also extended an invitation to the Lowell musicians who will participate to have luncheon with the "boys" in the early evening. Among the talent who will take part in the program will be Commissioner O'Donnell, the Honey Boy quartet, Mrs. F. L. Roberts and others.

GERMAN ENDS LIFE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 5.—Richard Adam Timmerschell, representative of German commercial interests in China, committed suicide here today by jumping from his room on the tenth floor of a bachelor apartment house. He had first slashed his wrist with a razor blade. No motive for the suicide has been ascertained by the police.

WESLEY U. PEARNE

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., July 5.—Wesley U. Pearne, who was connected with the police court here as judge or clerk for the 20 years, died early today in his 57th year.

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 5.—A telephone message received this morning by Attorney General Wiley E. Jones, from County Attorney Hugh M. Foster at Globe, stated that the mine strike situation was entirely beyond control and that United States troops from Douglas have been ordered on the recommendation of Mayor Bundell, who is on the ground representing the government.

NO PLACE FOR PACIFISTS U-BOATS ARE OPERATING TIME FOR EVACUATION NEAR THE AZORES

BOSTON, July 5.—Declaring that the time had come for another evacuation of Boston, when those who are shouting against participation in the war had better get out, as did the royalists of the revolution, Daniel J. Gallagher, assistant district attorney, assistant deputy of the Knights of Columbus in Massachusetts, yesterday brought to their feet cheering and shouting, the hundreds who crowded into Faneuil hall for the annual patriotic exercises and oration of the day.

"The obstacles which stand between us and victory are no greater or graver than those which beset the colonies," he said. "There were in the Colonial days those who did not sympathize with the Colonial cause, who preferred peace to independence. Twelve hundred such persons departed with Gen. Gage when his troops evacuated this city. They took up their home in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Loyaltyists of the number of 12,000 left New York about the same time and for the same reason."

"We are told that now there are some who find themselves unable to accept the policy of the United States, they oppose the policy of our government in its crisis, as openly as they dare."

"To such persons I would make a suggestion in keeping with their pacifist principles. They had come for another evacuation of Boston. There is no room here for anyone who is not willing to give the fullest measure of his support to the president of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, to the navy, to the army, to the flag of our country, wherever it flies."

BALFOUR SPEAKS AT JULY FOURTH CELEBRATION

LONDON, July 5.—Speaking last night at the banquet of the American society, the culminating event of the celebration in London of America's independence day, Arthur J. Balfour, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, said:

"The whole world has for the 111 year which have elapsed since the declaration of independence watched with admiration and witnessed the greatest expansion in population, wealth, material and spiritual resources in the history of any nation. We of the British nation regard this expansion with pride born of the fact that the 13 colonies were British and it was the British who, with Spain, Holland and France which gave the 13 colonies the opportunity to develop into a great country without European interference."

"We cannot look back on the separation of England and the United States as one of our political successes. No doubt something could be said for those on our side who fought for unity—this is the cause to which Americans themselves sacrificed rivers of blood. This mistake was made in the case of England and its colonies. I have no tears for British defeat which ended in the triumph of the establishment of the American republic. The American people should carry any trace of bitterness. Surely there is none on our side. In true perspective the past should not interfere with the study of history and the considerations binding us together which century by century must bind us closer."

"We are at war in a great struggle against power which seeks to destroy the roots wherefrom we derive all our strength. Are we not bound thus for ever to the United States, the country that the greatest result of the world war was the bringing together in a common purpose and understanding the sundry peoples of the English speaking race?"

FUNERAL OF JUSTICE MOODY AT HAVERHILL

HAVERHILL, July 5.—The funeral of Hon. William H. Moody, late associate justice of the United States supreme court, was held this afternoon from his home, 33 Saltonstall road, and the Trinity Episcopal church. Rev. P. Gavan Duffy, of the Society of Divine Compassion of New York City, and Rev. James Malcolm Smith, rector of the Trinity church, officiated.

Among the notable figures in attendance were ex-President William Howard Taft, Chief Justice Edward D. White and Associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States supreme court, Chief Justice Arthur P. Hughes of Massachusetts, supreme court, Congressman Frederick Gillett of Springfield and Attorney John A. Kratz of Washington. Mr. Moody's family secretary.

By order of Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, eight petty officers were ordered from the Portsmouth navy yard, as a honor guard. City hall was closed at noon and flags were at half mast throughout the city as the funeral was held. Burial was in the Mount Auburn cemetery at Newbury.

FRAMINGHAM, July 5.—Edward Thompson of Worcester, was killed here today when an automobile in which he and a party were proceeding to Marlboro was struck and demolished by a freight train on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. Miss Ruth Thompson of Marlboro and Ralph Thompson, golf instructor at the Framingham Country club, who was driving the car, were seriously injured.

'MORAL TREASON' TO ATTACK ALIENS, SAYS COL. ROOSEVELT IN FOURTH OF JULY SPEECH

FOREST HILLS, L. I., July 5.—Declaring that those in America who champion Germany's cause against the cause of America are guilty of moral treason, and are in fact, although not in law, traitors, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, in a Fourth of July address here yesterday, pleaded for a single standard of patriotism and loyalty.

The colonel preceded his remarks on the war situation with an allusion to the race riots in East St. Louis, saying that not only must order be restored and the riotous punished, but cause of the trouble should be ascertained and the remedy found.

QUESTION OF REVOKING CHAUFFEUR'S LICENSE

Special to The Sun
STATE HOUSE, Boston, July 5.—After a hearing last Tuesday afternoon, the highway commissioners took under advisement the question of whether they will revoke the chauffeur's license of Lyndon D. Foster, of Lowell, because of the accident in which he was involved May 20, as a result of which James Kennedy, of that town died five days later at St. John's hospital in Lowell. The case is to come before the Lowell police court next Saturday, and the commission will make no decision until after the criminal proceedings are disposed of. Foster's story, as told to the commission Tuesday, was that he was driving home at about 12:30 a. m. May 20, having finished his day's work as a jitney driver between Lowell and Lawrence. Rounding the S-curve in the Black North road, which had just been tarred and sealed, he suddenly noticed a spot in the road which he thought was either a pool of tar or a hole, so he attempted to "straddle" it with his wheels. He was unable to round the curve and his car was thrown off the highway, and there is also a high bank at the right which makes the place darker, casting shadows.

Going over the object, he said he felt a jar and stopped his car. He got out and found Kennedy lying in the road, with a whiskey bottle one-third full by his side. Either the starting crank or the rear axle had hit him, causing a scalp wound which required eight stitches, a fractured left thigh and ankle, and multiple contusions and bruises. He went and got his father, with whose aid he put Kennedy in the automobile and took him to the hospital.

If the man had been walking, Foster said, he would have been in the glare of his lights, and would have been seen in time for Foster to avoid hitting him, but his lights were so arranged that while they threw a brilliant light three hundred feet ahead, they leave a black space within ten feet of the car.

CURLEY A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

BOSTON, July 5.—Mayor James M. Curley made his first public announcement that he would be a candidate for re-election next December at a meeting last night of the Tammany club, an organization which he founded some years ago. He declared that he felt confident of winning and would "continue the same constructive, honest and efficient administration."

STRAWBERRY WEEK
Native strawberries are now at their height, and this week and next should see every householder in Massachusetts eating at least a half-dozen jars of jam. Strawberries may be easily preserved by the cold-pack method, and eight to ten minutes boiling in the hot water bath is sufficient to sterilize them thoroughly. The fruit is apt to discolor and float to the top of the jar, but this will not hurt the flavor if the sterilizing is complete. A medium syrup should be used. Three quarts of water and four pounds of sugar will make four quarts of medium syrup. If the fruit is packed tight in the jars one-half pint of syrup will be enough for each pint jar.

The Massachusetts state board of agriculture has just issued an illustrated circular on "Fruit and Food" which every householder should have during canning season. This circular contains a valuable table showing the best season for canning all native fruits. Copies may be secured by writing Willard Wheeler, Secretary, 136 State House, Boston.

CHEVALSKI INJURED

There were but few accidents as a result of the careless use of fireworks yesterday and the night before, owing in great measure to the fact that the amount of fireworks sold this year was comparatively small and the only big pieces used were those which had found their way into Lowell from the New Hampshire cities.

Tom Chevalski, of 22 Lakeview avenue sustained burns on his right forearm Tuesday night and was taken to St. John's hospital where he received treatment. Henry Kelly of 601 Central street was burned about the right eye and Andrew Sailer of Lakeview avenue had his left hand burned with powder.

Two other cases were also reported. George Guichet of 94 First street was struck by an automobile and James Carroll, living at 23 Woburn street, had his left little

The fruit and confectionery store at 15 Chalmers street conducted by Irving Barlow was gutted by fire early yesterday afternoon. The damage was estimated at $3000. People in the store at the time as well as passersby had narrow escapes from being burned by the flames.

COLLISION

A large open electric car of the Bay State Street Railway Co. crashed into the rear end of the regular Lowell and Boston semi-convertible at a point about one mile below Chandler's turnout in Tewksbury, shortly after 9 o'clock last night and several persons sustained slight injuries. According to the railway officials the regular car was held up by a motor truck drawn up by the side of the road so close to the track that the regular car could not pass. In the meantime the second car rounded the curve which hid the first car from view and the collision occurred.

The larger car was but slightly damaged but the front end of the extra was smashed and John J. Loomis, motorman, who resides at 100 Ludlum street, sustained injuries which necessitated his removal to the state infirmary. Michael Calnin, conductor on the car, escaped injury as did Motorman John Primeau and Conductor William Harrington of the regular car.

There were about 45 passengers in the forward vehicle, and of these only two were injured. A man and woman giving the name of Rolfe and living in Shawheen street, Tewksbury, were sitting in one of the rear lengthwise seats of the car and were thrown up against one of the cross-section seats when the crash came. They were taken in an automobile to the infirmary hospital, where a few minor bruises were treated. In the rear car there were 10 passengers and none was injured beyond a general shaking up.

The Sun is read daily in more homes in Lowell than any other newspaper.

HANDS ACROSS THE BORDER
Mayor Louis Wilde, of San Diego, Cal., shaking hands across the Mexican border line with Colonel Esteban Cantu, governor of the northern district of Lower California.

To the right of Governor Cantu is Teodoro Prioleiro, Mexican consul at San Diego.
The picture was snapped at the international boundary recently when Mexican officials crossed the line to attend the International Telesphere Fiesta in San Diego. The purpose of the three-day celebration was to cement bonds of friendship and to dispel any impressions of discordant relations between Mexico and the United States.

President Carranza sent two motion picture photographers for films of the celebration to be shown in Mexico City.
Gen. Perez Trevino, of General Obregon's staff, and Enrique Ballesteros, attorney, were guests of honor from Mexico City. Attorney Ballesteros said it was the desire of Mexico that Americans and Mexicans unite their energies for the welfare of humanity.

ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS

Counsel for the defendants entered pleas of not guilty and by agreement the cases were continued until July 18.
Donovan and McSweeney were arrested by Inspector John A. Walsh of this city and Chief J. J. O'Brien of Edgewater, N. J., at the Middlesex street station Tuesday night. Chief O'Brien happened to be in the station on business Tuesday and while seated in the police station word was telephoned in that there were several pickpockets at work at the Middlesex street station. Chief O'Brien and Inspector Walsh hurried to the station and their attention was attracted to a quartet of men. According to the police one or more of the four would approach the ticket window in order to get a glimpse at the rolls displayed by those purchasing tickets.
At 7:40 o'clock as the train bound for Montreal was pulling out of the station it is alleged that the four men crowded around several other men and that McSweeney placed his hand in a man's pocket when Chief O'Brien

K. OF C. REACH THE $5000 MARK

The peaceful aftermath of a victorious campaign best describes the scene at the Knights of Columbus campaign headquarters today. The campaign is officially closed, and a sum well on the better side of $5000 will be in the hands of the treasurer when the final details are straightened out. Today was spent in adding the various amounts, and in receiving the odd contributions that are sure to come in after the real conclusion of the campaign. A number of the collection boxes have yet to be opened, and it will be a day or two before definite exact totals can be given out. The committee in charge of the campaign will meet as soon as the treasurer reports something definite to act upon, and then the final result will be given to the public.

Tuesday evening the members of the order enjoyed open house, and although there was nothing definite to report as to the campaign, they were informed of the general success of the affair, and congratulatory remarks were exchanged. Refreshments were served and a short musical program carried out. There were several hundred members on hand. Rev. Francis J. Mullin spoke briefly on patriotism, and congratulated the members on the success of their campaign. Grand Knight Robert R. Thomas announced the fact that the $5000 mark had been reached, and this was greeted with cheers. Those taking part in the musical program were John Baxter, John McArdle, Thomas Tobin and George Briggs was the accompanist.

STEPS TO ACHIEVE IRISH INDEPENDENCE BEING THOUGHT
SAYS SINN FEINER
LONDON, July 5.—Darrill Figgis, one of the prominent Sinn Feiners lately released from prison, said in a speech at Killarney, Ireland, that steps to achieve Irish independence were being thought out and that the full policy would be disclosed at the proper time. He said, the Sinn Feiners would appoint a conference at which England would not be the best-laid of conferees. If the nation rallied they would see a sovereign Irish republic within two years.

LOWELL WOMAN INJURED IN WINCHESTER

WINCHESTER, July 5.—In a head-on collision between two autos at 9:30 last evening in front of the Winchester club Mrs. Eugene Teller, 73, of Lowell, sustained three broken ribs and was sent to Winchester hospital.

The occupants of both cars were badly shaken up, though all save Mrs. Teller and Mrs. Gagnon were able to go to their homes. Mr. McKenney claimed that the accident was due to his being blinded by the light on the Gagnon machine. Mrs. Teller, who is the mother of Mrs. Gagnon, and the latter, returned to Lowell this morning.

Tell Your Wife Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift corns or calluses off with fingers.

Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying, or afterwards. This may sound like a dream to corn-plagued men and women who have been cutting, filing and wearing torturous plasters. Yes, Corns lift off and calluses peel off as if by magic.

A small bottle of freezings costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops directly upon your tender corn or callus, and instantly the soreness disappears; then, shortly the corn, or callus will be so loose that it lifts off.

Freezings dries instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep a tiny bottle handy on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

21,000 GERMANS CAPTURED

Russians Continue Successes On Galician Front—Allies Celebrate Fourth Allied Shipping Losses for the Week Show Marked Decrease

American Independence day was celebrated enthusiastically not only in the United States, but also in England and France, as well as on the battle fronts. In Paris a battalion of the first American expeditionary force on its way to the battle front was the centre of the celebration. The soldiers of revolutionary Russia on the fourth of July maintained their attempts to break through the Austro-German lines in eastern Galicia. Obscured by the results of the fighting during the first three days of July, General Brusiloff's men continue their efforts, especially in the region of Brezany, and are throwing fresh forces against the Teuton positions.

Prisoners Exceed 15,000
During Sunday and Monday, the first two days of the new drive, the Russians captured 15,000 prisoners and 15,000 men, and on Wednesday probably added several more thousand to the total. Twenty-nine German and 23 machine guns were taken from the Austro-Germans.

Violent artillery duels have been in progress on the Konchich-Zlochoff sector, on the Stokhoff, in Volhynia, and at Brody, on the Galician-Volhynian border.

In Champagne on the western front the German crown prince has made another desperate and fruitless effort to break the French lines northwest of Rheims. Attacking in force along an 11-mile front, the Germans made especially strong efforts around Corney and Ailles, and against the California plateau. The French repulsed all attacks with losses to the assailants.

German Salient Taken
After checking the Germans, the French took the initiative in a small operation east of Corney and captured a strong German salient. German attacks on the left bank of the Moselle were repulsed.

Raid and patrol engagements have occupied the German and British forces. Several Austrian attacks on the Carso south of Gorizia were checked by the Italians. Rome reports that German airplanes again have raided the English coast, this time attacking Harwich. British airmen pursued the raiders and two enemy machines were brought down and a third was damaged. Eleven persons were killed and 25 injured by bombs dropped by the raiders.

Submarine Figures Lower

Allied efforts to check the submarine war were successful in the past week. The weekly statement of British losses shows a decrease of eight in the number of merchant ships sunk. Twenty ships, 15 over 100 tons, and five less than 100 tons, were lost in comparison with 23 in both categories the previous week and 32 in each of the two weeks preceding. In vessels of more than 1000 tons sunk, the falling off is more marked, as there was a decrease of six.

BAY STATE CONFIDENT OF THE FUTURE

"We feel confident of the future because of the result of our request for increased income," said President P. P. Sullivan of the Bay State Street Railway company at the announcement of the decision of the public utility commission to put the new fare schedule into effect. First, because we are assured of increased income; and second, because of the spirit of understanding with which our demands have met by the majority of the communities served by our road. With but one or two exceptions it was admitted by representatives of all these communities that we should have more money.

"The officers of the Bay State are not convinced that the increases are sufficient to meet all the company's needs, but they have agreed to make trial of the new rates and it is clearly understood by all the parties that if the resulting revenue proves insufficient an application may be made at the end of six months for a further increase in fares.

"When we ask the public to turn in and help us make a success of this six months' experiment, we have their interests in mind as well as our own. City officials can aid us materially by regulating jitney competition. We do not ask that the jitneys be abolished. All we ask for is a square deal. Unregulated jitneys divert from our treasury more than $300,000 a year.

"We are going into this experiment in period with the feeling that we have back of us the public and we shall take special pains to acquaint the public with what we are doing. If operating costs go up we shall let them know, and if they go down we will let them know that also. We are assuming that our business is the public's business and that inasmuch as it is the public's business the public should know all about it."

WERNER HORN BEGINS TERM IN PRISON

BOSTON, July 5.—Werner Horn, a German reservist, whose attempt in February, 1915, to destroy the Canadian Pacific railroad bridge across the St. Croix river at Vanceboro Me., was described by him as an act of war, left here today in charge of federal officers for Atlanta to begin an 18 months' sentence. Horn was convicted in the United States district court two weeks ago of illegally transporting dynamite on a passenger train from New York to Vanceboro, after the supreme court had denied his appeal in habeas corpus proceedings, in which he set forth the claim that he was exempt from punishment in this country.

At the beginning of the war Horn proceeded from Guatemala to New York with the intention of returning to Germany to join his regiment. Fail-

This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution should be used to be certain that it is delicate bay.

EMPLOYEES SURPRISE HARRY DUNLAP

Mr. Harry Dunlap, treasurer of the A. G. Pollard Co., was pleasantly surprised this afternoon when the employees of the firm presented him a large American flag, similar to the one which was recently raised over the A. G. Pollard store in Merrimack street. At 12.30 the clerks of the store boarded two special cars in Merrimack street and departed for Mason's Corner in North Billerica. Upon the arrival there basket luncheon was enjoyed, and in the early part of the afternoon Mr. William W. Buzzell presented the flag to Mr. Dunlap on behalf of the clerks of the A. G. Pollard Co. Mr. Dunlap responded fittingly and expressed his gratitude at the thoughtfulness of the employees.

In the course of the afternoon a list of sporting events, including a baseball game and racing races was carried out, and a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Those responsible directly for the affair were Miss Etta Aldrich and Mr. Paul Doherty. Next Thursday the annual outing of the A. G. Pollard Co. Employees Mutual Benefit association will be held at Nantasket beach.

HAIG PLANS BIG DRIVE NORTH OF ARRAS

COPENHAGEN, July 5.—Lieut. Gen. von Slein, Prussian minister of war and state, told a committee of the German reichstag yesterday, according to despatches reaching here, that a further British offensive was expected north of Arras where Gen. Haig apparently is preparing actions on a large scale. The minister said the abandonment of the Scheldt campaign was probably but he regarded the Italian offensive on the Isonzo and in the Tyrol as shattered. His views of the Russian offensive are not reported if they were expressed.

The ministerial declarations regarding the working of the submarine campaign, about which the official Wolff news bureau cabled ample reports to the neutral press, were not the only matters before yesterday's meeting on the reichstag committee. The socialist

Satisfied That "Neutrone Prescription 99" Is All That's Claimed

This reliable prescription has, since being placed in the hands of the public, done more to remove Rheumatic Troubles than all previous remedies combined.

It is different from other remedies in that it does not upset the stomach or impair the heart, a condition heretofore thought impossible. It is not a cure-all but a remedy to be taken internally treating Rheumatism as a constitutional disease, by its general action through the blood.

The treatment is a most complete combination of rheumatic-reducing elements and is dependable to produce results from the first use. It aims at rheumatism as a disease of the blood. 50 cents and $1.00 the bottle. Fred Howard's Drug Store, 129 Central street, Lowell Pharmacy, 632 Merrimack street and leading druggists everywhere.

Lower Tire Cost Than Ever—NOW

For, in the old days, tires not only cost motorists more per tire, but were also so far inferior to the present product, that the final cost—the cost per mile—was from 50 to 100 or more per cent. higher than you pay now.

United States Tires—the 'Royal Cord', the 'Nobby', the 'Chain', the 'Uscu' and the 'Plain',

- one for every need of price and use,
- produced by the largest rubber manufacturer in the world,
- produced by the most experienced tire manufacturer in the world,
- produced by a time-tested, exclusive, patented, vulcanizing process,
- produced of only the most carefully selected materials,
- have so far eclipsed every other make of tire that

United States Tires are famous for their mileage-giving qualities—their low cost per mile.

The proof?—the consistent and persistent tremendous sales increases of United States Tires.

organ Vorwaerts in its independent report of the "little reichstag" says Herr Ebert, the socialist, devoted considerable attention to the unsatisfactory conditions in the utilization of the coal and the prospect of an inadequate supply of fuel for the fourth war winter which the Germans probably will be called upon to face.

Tour Erzbischof, the clerical leader, and Herr von Payer, radical, supported in general Herr Ebert's view of conditions and criticized the government's inefficient measures for dealing with the problem.

Representatives of various parties expressed divergent views on the peace question which also was discussed by the committee. Herr Ebert said the government could have peace this summer if only it would offer peace without annexations and indemnities to all opponents and abandon separatist overtures to Russia.

Herr Erzbischof said the formula of the Russian council of deputies was impossible and impracticable. He warned the government representatives against awakening false optimism by their statements.

Herr von Payer said that further peace proffers would be harmful and tend to defeat the German object. The only thing to do, he said, was to hold out, meantime holding public sentiment by immediately beginning the work of democratizing the country.

Such sessions of the "little reichstag" and the debate in the Senate diet threatening revolution unless reform is immediately undertaken, are rather suggestive preliminaries to the reichstag meeting beginning tomorrow.

Walton, sister of the bride, wore gray silk and Mrs. Charles Brigham, sister of the groom, wore blue silk and assisted in the receiving line during the reception.

Immediately after the ceremony a beautiful wedding supper was served. The house was elaborately decorated with potted plants, cut flowers and daisies. A pleasing feature of the evening was a shower wedding ball filled with rose petals and confetti. The wedding gifts were both costly and beautiful and consisted of cut glass, silverware, linens, etc. The happy couple will spend their honeymoon touring Vermont, New Hampshire and Canada, where they will be received at the home of the bridegroom's parents. They will reside at 56 Agawam street.

Lemons Whiten and Beautify the Skin! Make Cheap Lotion

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier. About the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Caro should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smootheners and beautifier.

Just try it! Make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen, and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful for rough, red hands.

Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.

ASSAILING THE PRESIDENT
Chairman Hinshaw of the national prohibition party is out in a bitter and unjustifiable attack upon President Wilson because the president asked the prohibition leaders not to delay the passage of the food bill by insisting upon the retention of the provisions affecting the manufacture of beer and light wines.

"We would undoubtedly have national prohibition within 30 days," says Hinshaw, "were it not for the interference of Woodrow Wilson coming to the rescue of the brewers in the final hour."

"He may lead the economic forces but he cannot lead the moral forces henceforth."

This is another example of the fanatical advocacy of a reform wholly regardless of the interest of the nation. The country is moving towards prohibition and it will reach that goal in due time, but the floutings of such men as Hinshaw will only injure the cause, just as the action of a few fanatical pickets at Washington are injuring the cause of woman suffrage.

We are confident that the sensible men of the party do not approve of Hinshaw's intemperate language.

President Wilson has the understanding to know that the sudden overturning of an industry employing a vast number of people and in which a large amount of capital is invested would cause disorder and resentment in those states in which the liquor business is strong. The president's desire to hasten the passage of the food control bill is based upon the highest and most patriotic motives, and if Mr. Hinshaw considers the interests of the nation in war rather than his personal hobby, he will reach the same conclusion.

The senators who have used the prohibition issue to delay the passage of the food bill, are not particularly in favor of prohibition. Their aim on the contrary is to delay the enactment of the measure and thus defeat its purpose.

Mr. Hinshaw stands behind these men who are serving the Kaiser instead of the United States.

Let prohibition be brought forward in a proper manner on the merits of the question, not as a rider to a measure to be carried by a resort to sharp practice which would have a reaction that would injure the nation at war and in all probability defeat the enforcement of the law. Drinking and the distillation of liquor will be cut down as it should be during the war, but if President Wilson opposes total prohibition, he does so because there is a patriotic reason for so doing.

As to leading the moral forces, of the nation, President Wilson may be as strongly in favor of prohibition as is Mr. Hinshaw, but he would not favor it at a time and in a manner that cannot fail to result in trouble and injury to the entire country by delaying the passage of the food bill while speculators pre-empt the crops not yet harvested. Let every great issue be settled separately after due deliberation and not by snap methods nor as a mere corollary to a proposition wholly distinct and separate.

UNJUST DRAFT ARRANGEMENT
It appears that the draft is to be made upon the basis of "population" in spite of the protest entered by Congressman Rogers and of the bill introduced by him and Senator Calder of New York.

This will be unfair to Lowell in two ways. In the first place it will greatly increase the number of men to be drafted in proportion to the number eligible and it will thus not only do an injustice to the men and their families, but it will tend to hamper the industries from which they will be drawn. Thus each city such as Lowell, which has a large population of aliens will pay the penalty for having so many foreign residents.

The decision of the government means that where there are many aliens who are not subject to draft, the young men who are eligible must make up the deficiency.

To make the draft fair for all parties, the term "population" in the law should be interpreted to mean the total number eligible under the registration law. To do anything else will be a rank injustice which should not stand in law. For example: If one city has 20 per cent aliens in the registration age and another has no aliens, and if both have to meet a draft call on the basis of "population," it is plain that one will be called upon for a percentage of its registered men that is 20 per cent. higher than that of the other. That would be an injustice which would violate in principle at least the privileges of citizens guaranteed equal rights under the constitution. The city of Springfield would have little reason to object to a draft on the basis of population because it has but a very small alien population. Lowell and cities similarly made up would suffer from such an arrangement. Hence the protests.

THE GERMAN SPY PROBLEM
As now appears the German spy problem will be one of the most difficult with which this country will have to deal during the war. Some weeks ago it was learned that German spies had notified their home government of the orders issued for the sailing of Vice Admiral Sims' flotilla to British waters. Before the destroyers had cleared American waters, Germany knew they had sailed and she immediately arranged to have submarines lie in wait for them. Fortunately, the trap thus set did not work as the U-boats were unable to enter into any determined combat with the squadron of destroyers.

Not so, however, with the expeditionary force which has just landed in France. It appears that the Germans had full notice of the time of sailing and even the direction to be taken by the transports. Accordingly a squadron of submarines was sent to the appointed place of rendezvous, hoping to be able to send many of the transports to the bottom. Still another trap further west was laid for the Pershing forces but as a result of the keen vigilance and the quick action of the defensive forces, the submarines failed to sink a single vessel. That is gratifying of course, but the fact that is deplorable is that there are spies, perhaps trusted in high places, who are thus betraying the government and the nation to the enemy.

SEEN AND HEARD

Let us be charitable and say that the commissioners are not to blame for what they don't know.

If some of the men holding lucrative positions at the city's expense had brains as big as their mouths they would be all right.

When the head of a department at city hall refuses to give a reporter any information concerning the work of his department, he is exercising deep poor judgment, for the reporter is the fellow who gets the news for the public and the commissioner is a public servant, even though he does command a chauffeur and automobile.

Sad eyes, that were patient and tender, and eyes that were steadfast and true, and warm with the unchanging splendor of courage no ill could subdue. Eyes dark with the dream of the years, and hallowed by pain and foreboding, and strained by repression of tears. Sad eyes that were leveled and brightened by visions of seiges and wars, now watch over a country united from the luminous slopes of the stars.

Flourishing Cape Gardens

I took a ride down through Plymouth and to the Cape Cod canal and to Pocomtucket the other day, the Stockland Standard's reporter tells his readers. The day was fine and the roads were good and conditions were such as to make the ride a very enjoyable one. I noticed on the trip that the gardens down on the Cape are considerably advanced over those in this immediate section. No doubt it is due to the softer air from the bay but anyway they were a delight to the eyes and shows that the people of this section of the state are alive to the importance of gardens. The fine weather of the past few days has made a big improvement to the gardens.

I used them and they are just wonderful. I have tried several medicines but Anuric excels any I have tried. I had trouble with my knee. I feel it my duty to recommend Anuric to anyone who needs it."

Program of Sports

A program of sports was carried on in the early part of the afternoon, most of which was the marathon race. This started shortly after one o'clock and the course was from the windmill on the boulevard, around the park, to the school, Merrimack Central, Gerham, Moore, Agawam and St. James streets to the grounds. Fairly good time was made, and the following were in the finishing order: Fred Coutt, first; Arthur Nebes, second; James Crowe, third; George Goodard, fourth, and for consolation, the three runners failed to finish. Coutt had a lead of a quarter of a mile at the finish.

A pie-eating contest for the boys also was a great amusement to the onlookers, and some of the contestants worked strenuously for the first prize. John Finnegan was the winner, while the consolation prize was won by Frank Lannon second. The 50-yard dash was won by George Connolly, while Frank Lannon second. The shoe race was won by Frank Lannon, while the consolation prize was won by Miss May Reid. The 50-yard race for girls was won by Miss May Reid and Miss Lillian Brooks was second.

The three-legged race for the boys was won by William Higgins and Martha Roberts, with Miss Ella Moriarty and Miss Elsie Shaw, second.

The consolation race for the boys was won by George Connolly and Miss Elsie Shaw, second.

JUST OF MAINTAINING U. S. FIGHTING FORCES

WASHINGTON, July 5.—An idea of the enormous cost to maintain America's fighting forces is given in a statement issued by the committee on public information today showing the relative amounts expended in 1915, when the country was at peace, and to be expended this year.

Subsistence, for instance, which in 1915 was supplied at the modest cost of $5,800,000, this year has been provided for in the appropriation estimates at $133,000,000.

Clothing and camp garrison equipment which two years ago were had for $2,000,000 will cost this year $231,000,000.

Ordnance stores and supplies which in 1915 were furnished for only $700,000, this year, will cost more than $170,000,000.

Manufacture of arms, which in 1915 cost $60,000, this year will cost more than $55,000,000.

Ammunition for small arms, which in 1915 was had at $875,000, this year will cost $145,000,000.

Transportation, which in 1915 was furnished at $12,000,000, this year will cost $222,000,000.

Regular supplies, which in 1915 cost $10,000,000 this year will cost $110,000,000.

The aeronomics $450,000 was appropriated in 1915, while $7,000,000 already has been appropriated for the most fifteen days at which time it is believed every woman in the city will have pledged herself to do her utmost in the conservation of food.

The captains of the various teams, who were chosen last Tuesday, met at headquarters in Merrimack street this morning and received final instructions for their work.

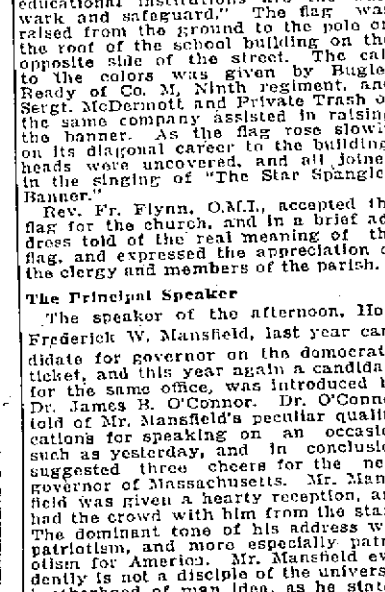

It was decided that the captains select assistants and most of this work has been done, the list of names to be published later.

Every housekeeper in the city, who has not received an enrollment card will be visited by a member of the various teams, the city having been divided into districts according to ward lines, and each and every one will be asked to join the army of food conservators. All that is required to become a full fledged member of the Lowell unit is the signature and address of the housekeeper, as there is no fee to be paid.

The canvassers, who went out this morning took out 12,000 enrollment cards and it was stated at headquarters that before the week is over most of the city will have been visited and returned to the public safety committee office at city hall. It is expected that 20,000 cards will be distributed throughout the city before the campaign is over.

Miss Mary Jones has already been received by Miss Ethel Mae Brown, clerk of the public safety committee at city hall, the names being written on blanks printed in the newspapers. Miss Brown carries the address of the regular cards which are later sent to Washington, D. C.

Housekeepers of this city who have not yet been enrolled are requested to call on the high school and that he thought that Americans should fight for freedom alone and not for other peoples. He also said that he believed that every alien in the country should be made to enlist and take oaths for the defense of the country. The part which the Catholic church has played in the struggle for liberty was also dwelt upon at length by the speaker.

Mr. Mansfield's Address
Mr. Mansfield spoke in part as follows:

Reverend fathers and honored guests, ladies and gentlemen of the Sacred Heart parish: When I was asked to speak here today by our mutual friend Mr. O'Sullivan, I was only too happy against our will. We begin to read at last what manner of thing this was. I have spoken several times on the Boston common for the cause of the Bostonians, and on the last night that I appeared there an old comrade of mine of '68 said to me: "Why is it that this year and this war speak to you so much more than to me?" and he had to fire the order of an outbreak. Why is it that it is necessary to this year to be so much more than to me? Why was it that we were turned away? We were too many soldiers." Later in the argument upon the platform I said: "I believe that the only line of distinction is that too much attention has been paid to these commissions who come here from foreign shores, and not to the men who are in the ranks, when the ordinary man in the street reads every day in his paper something about the Italian commission and the French commission and the Belgian commission, he is led to believe by all pomp and parade that all these people come here for it to get our aid in this war, and a great many people believe that this war is being fought for the sake of the commissions. There are men in this country who started from Russia long ago, and they cannot be expected to fight for Russia. There are men in this country who started from England, and they cannot be expected to fight for England. I have not in the front the courage to ask men to go to the front to die for the sake of a mere sacrifice for some other man's country. I think the only way to Americanize men is to make them realize that they are not fighting for a foreign democracy. The only argument to urge men to fight for our flag, liberty and for these United States is that they are fighting for the United States. America in order to bring for France and Lorraine, which were taken from her.

It seems a very appropriate thing to present to the people on a holiday to speak about liberty to the minds of throughout this great nation, and the American revolution, and the American revolution had its beginning in liberty was conceived in liberty, and was a revolution in liberty, and was a revolution in liberty, and was a revolution in liberty. This country is the oldest republic in the world, and it is the only one of them. If everyone of them has followed in the footsteps of our great nation and

NEW ALLIED OFFENSIVE Hunt For German Spies in WITNESS IN CRUGER CASE

ON WESTERN FRONT U. S. Reveals Facts That ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Would Startle World

With Russia proving that her army, now rehabilitated, can again strike blows there without question, and extraordinary efforts by her army to find out what is going on behind the British lines are reflected in the official statements.

Notable activity is developing in Belgium. Germany senses the trend of things there without question, and extraordinary efforts by her army to find out what is going on behind the British lines are reflected in the official statements.

Nine German Airplanes Wrecked

From all appearances the German flyers are having poor success. London's report last night, for instance, showed nine German airplanes put out of action to one lost by the British.

German Expects Big British Drive

That the British will fall north of Arras is the German expectation, according to Gen. von Stin, the Prussian minister of war. He told a German recharging committee yesterday that Gen. Haig apparently was preparing for an offensive on a large scale in this area.

In this connection it is to be noted that the British, in a local operation last night pushed their lines forward slightly on a six hundred yard front southwest of Hellebeke in Belgium.

French Repulse Germans

Gen. Pétain on the French front, is sending his efforts toward maintaining intact all the commanding positions in the front line. The latest German attempt to wrest control of an important sector on the Aisne from him not only came to naught with exceptionally heavy German losses, but the French in their reaction took a salient near Cerny from the Germans.

Austro-Germans Hemmed In

In eastern Galicia the Austro-German forces are evidently in an uncomfortable position at some points as the result of the Russian advance this week. This position is manifested notably at Brzezany, where they have been reported hemmed in on three sides, and an attack was launched upon the Russians there at Chysteloy. Moreover, as the Russians promptly broke up the assault by their gunfire.

Attacks Repulsed By Russians

Attacks on the Russian lines further south, near Lipincodina east of Narayuk, also were repulsed.

Signs of a Russian re-awakening appear in today's German official statement. It reports little movement in Galicia, but an increase in the activities along lines in western Moldavia and eastward to the Danube.

Russian Attack Turks

In Mesopotamia the Russians, after having driven the Turks out of Panjwin, are attacking them in the positions to which they had been driven. The south and west of the town, where they are offering a tenacious resistance.

Federal Officials Unearth Information of Amazing Character—Sec. Baker Issues Statement Explaining War Department Censorship

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Officials, who for obvious reasons, cannot be quoted, declared today that if the government's activities against German spies in the United States could be published the news would startle the world.

While not admitting they are convinced that the spy system was entirely responsible for the massed submarine attack on the transport of Gen. Pershing's expedition it was said that the combined forces of the state, war, navy and justice departments were working in cohesion, and systematically unearthing information of an amazing character and of great value to the government.

It was pointed out that even with the strictest censorship of mails, cables and press the European allies have not been able to meet the situation in their complete satisfaction. The problem is of far greater magnitude in this country, with thousands of aliens, an immense border, and countless possible means of outside communication.

Secret service operations, necessarily carried under cover, are given little or no publicity and this fact, officials say, gives rise to a surmise that the government is keeping its hand in its sleeve.

It was pointed out today that although the allies have maintained spy systems as far reaching or effective as Germany, even that country, despite her registration of individuals, her comparatively small border line and her network of secret police has been unable to prevent information of her military moves from reaching the outside world.

Germany's realization of that is shown in her absolute suppression of all mail and cable communications for a considerable period preceding any important military movement.

SEC. BAKER ISSUES STATEMENT EXPLAINING OPERATION OF WAR DEPT. CENSORSHIP

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Secretary Baker today issued a statement explaining the operation of the war department censorship over cable dispatches from France dealing with the American troops, saying that the present arrangements are temporary and soon will be supplemented by a method that will not delay delivery.

"Pending the complete organization of Gen. Pershing's headquarters in France," the statement said, "with the arrival there of correspondents accredited to represent American newspapers, the temporary arrangements by which cablegrams from France dealing with American troop movements are transmitted to the war department here for distribution will be continued.

"It is in the interest alike of the army and the newspapers to afford a certain reliance as to the propriety of the publication of messages from France. The arrangement is temporary and will be replaced as soon as the complete organization of the headquarters in France is effected. In the meantime an adequate force to deal promptly with the dispatches will be maintained. It is a day and will deliver the dispatches received in the order in which they come so that no disadvantage will result in anything beyond the brief delay in sending the dispatches to Washington and back to the center of distribution.

The work of reading over the press dispatches is being done by the committee on public information, much of it personally by George Creel, the chairman. Secretary Baker explained, however, that the opinion of High. Gen. Pershing, considered for a war department here, was sought where there was any doubt as to the advisability of publication of any item. Mr. Baker has made no effort to find legal authority for the establishment of the new censorship, he said, and does not intend to ask for legislation in that regard.

"The secretary of war," he said "by unanimous consent is empowered to take any steps necessary for the protection of American soldiers."

The censorship arrangement to be set up by Maj. Gen. Pershing is understood, will cover British or French publications regarding American troop movements as well as dispatches to this country. Mr. Baker added that it might be found necessary to supplement that censorship with an additional reading at New York in order to make certain that every press or personal dispatch had been read to prevent information of value to the enemy from leaking out.

Neither Secretary Baker nor Secretary Daniels would express any opinion today as to whether or not the censorship of American troop transports had been transmitted to Germany in such time that a U-boat trap had been laid. He said that they had no specific information of that point. It was clear, however, that additional precautions to prevent such happenings were being considered, the nature of which was not disclosed.

The war department censorship has been in operation since Tuesday when by official order all news cables from France began to be diverted to the secretary of war for his inspection instead of being delivered to those to whom they were addressed.

tor police officers from Brookline have been heard.

In opening court Judge Keating, who is presiding, instructed the foreman, George A. Green, of the grand jury, to proceed with the consideration of evidence to be presented, by the district attorney and to report after a thorough examination of all witnesses.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Arthur Woods, police commissioner, signed a waiver of immunity today in connection with the plan of the district attorney's office to call him as a witness before the grand jury investigating the Ruth Cruger murder case at the instance of Gov. Whitman.

It was explained today that the grand jury would seek to fix criminal responsibility, if such exists, on the part of any policeman who may have been associated with Alfredo Cocchi, confessed murderer of Miss Cruger, for his escape to Italy.

Guy Scull, a deputy police commissioner, was informed today he, too, must sign a waiver of immunity if he was to testify before the grand jury.

Hardly had the jury gone into session when the district attorney received word that Stephen Smith, one of the important witnesses in the case, had attempted suicide in his cell in the Tombs. Smith, who is an Indian half-breed and is serving a prison sentence, wrote a letter to Mrs. Grace Huntington, the woman lawyer who joined the Cruger murder, telling her that he was the man who disposed of earth taken from a Cocchi's grave after the body had been buried there.

SOLDIER BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

With military honors the remains of Private George W. Gravelle, of Company M, who was killed by a train at Newburyport early Sunday morning were tenderly consigned to their last resting place in the Catholic cemetery yesterday. The funeral took place from the home of the father, Charles Gravelle, 45 Mammoth road at 8.30 o'clock. The cortege headed by a firing squad of Company M, in command of Sergeant Spillane, wound its way to St. Jean Baptiste church. The bearers, all members of Company M, marched on either side of the hearse as a body guard, while preceding the hearse was a barouche well filled with floral tributes, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. At the church at 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. L. A. Nolla, O.M.I., assisted by

Medicine Worked Wonders For Him

Well Known Lowell Man Gives a Strong Endorsement for Plant Juice

In a recent interview, The Plant Juice Man, who has his headquarters at Dows, the Druggists, in Merrimack Square, Lowell, said:

"Very few remedies have ever advanced as rapidly in the eyes of the people as has the new herbal stomachic remedy, Plant Juice. It has only been on the market for a short time, but already there are many thousands who have completely removed from their systems the symptoms of stomach-ach, liver, kidney trouble and rheumatism. "Too many people, as a rule, make the mistake of treating the symptoms instead of the cause. They get temporary relief from the local trouble, but the diseased condition which was originally the cause, is allowed to grow worse and worse. This is particularly true in the case of people suffering from so-called stomach trouble. Owing to the wide-spread nature of this disease, the symptoms are liable to appear in various parts of the body, and the sufferer, not being able to determine why this pain should appear, immediately seeks relief for the symptoms only. "Selected from numerous testimonials recently received from local people, is that of Mr. Frank Diette, who resides at No. 88 Third street, Lowell, and is the popular manager of one of the largest bowling alleys in the city. He stated: "I have been troubled for over a year with indigestion, had terrible pains in right side, and after I ate any food would suffer great distress; in fact I had scarcely any appetite, and felt tired and languid all the time; I had headaches and was so constipated I had to take some laxative all the time, which did me no real good. I had heard so much about Plant Juice and the good it was doing in our city, that I decided to try it. I was surprised at the quick relief I got; the first bottle gave me such fine results, that I continued to take it, and now I am happy to state that my appetite is fine, I sleep well, have no more headaches or constipation. I feel more active than for a long time, I am certainly glad to endorse Plant Juice."

QUESTION OF REVOKING CHAUFFEUR'S LICENSE

Special to The Sun
STATE HOUSE, Boston, July 5.—After a hearing last Tuesday afternoon, the highway commissioners took under advisement the question of whether they will revoke the chauffeur's license of Lyndwood D. Foster, of Leacut, because of the accident in which he was involved May 20, as a result of which James Kennedy, of that town died five days later at St. John's hospital in Lowell. The case is to come before the Lowell police court next Saturday, and the commission will make no decision until after the criminal proceedings are disposed of.

Foster's story, as told to the commission Tuesday, was that he was driving home at about 12.30 a. m. May 20, having finished his day's work as a jitney driver between Lowell and Lawrence. Rounding the S-curve in the Black North road, which had just been tarred and graded, he suddenly noticed a spot in the road which he thought was either a pool of tar or a hole, so he attempted to "straddle" it with his wheels. He was unable to make it out clearly, he said, because in rounding the curve his lights were thrown off the highway, and there is also a high bank at the right which makes the place darker, casting shadows.

Going over the object, he said he felt a jar and stopped his car. He got out and found Kennedy lying in the road, with a whiskey bottle one-third full by his side. After the starting crank of the car hit him, he hit him, causing a scalp wound which required eight stitches, a fractured left thigh and ankle, and multiple contusions and bruises. He went and got his father, with whose aid he put Kennedy in the automobile and took him to the hospital.

If the man had been walking, Foster said, he would have been in the glare of his lights, and would have been seen in time for Foster to avoid hitting him, but his lights were so arranged that while they throw a brilliant light three hundred feet ahead, they leave a black space within ten feet of the car.

Foster insisted that the suspension of his license was "an injustice." "I did the honorable thing," he said; "I stopped my car, found out what had happened, and went and got assistance to get the man to the hospital. If I had gone right home no one would ever have known that it was my car that struck him, but because I stopped I find myself in trouble." HOYT.

CURLEY A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

BOSTON, July 5.—Mayor James M. Curley made his first public announcement that he would be a candidate for re-election next December, at a meeting last night of the Tammany club, an organization which he founded some years ago. He declared that he felt confident of winning and would "continue the same constructive, honest and efficient administration."

STRAWBERRY WEEK

Native strawberries are now at their height, and this week and next should see every householder in Massachusetts coming at least a dozen jars and putting up at least a half-dozen jars of jam. Strawberries may be easily preserved by the cold-pack method, and eight to ten minutes boiling in the hot water bath outfit is sufficient to sterilize them thoroughly. The fruit is apt to discolor and float to the top of the jar, but this will not hurt the flavor if the sterilizing is complete. A medium syrup should be used. Three quarts of fruit and four pounds of sugar will make four quarts of medium syrup. If the fruit is packed tight in the jars one-half pint of syrup will be enough for each pint jar.

The Massachusetts state board of agriculture has just issued an illustrated circular on "Food" which every housekeeper should have during canning season. This circular contains a valuable table showing the best season for canning all native fruits. Copies may be secured by writing Wilfrid Wheeler, Secretary, 135 State House, Boston.

CHEVALOSKI INJURED

There were but few accidents as a result of the careless use of fireworks yesterday and the night before, owing to all probability to the fact that the amount of fireworks sold this year was comparatively small and the only big pieces used were those which had found their way into Lowell from the West Hamshire cities.

HANDS ACROSS THE BORDER
Mayor Louis Wilde, of San Diego, Cal., shaking hands across the Mexican border line with Colonel Esteban Cantu, governor of the northern district of Lower California.

To the right of Governor Cantu is Teodoro Freileres, Mexican consul at San Diego.
The picture was snapped at the international boundary recently when Mexican officials crossed the line to attend the International Friendship Fiesta in San Diego. The purpose of the three-day celebration was to cement bonds of friendship and to dispel any impressions of discordant relations between Mexico and the United States.

ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS

Council for the defendants entered pleas of not guilty and by agreement the cases were continued until July 18. Donovan and McSweeney were arrested by Inspector John A. Walsh of this city and Chief J. J. O'Brien of Edgewater, N. J., at the Middlesex street station Tuesday night. Chief O'Brien happened to be in Lowell on business Tuesday and while waiting in the police station word was telephoned in that there were several pickpockets at work at the Middlesex street station. Chief O'Brien and Inspector Walsh hurried to the station and their attention was attracted to a quartet of men. According to the police one of more of the four would approach the ticket window in order to get a glimpse at the rolls displayed by those purchasing tickets.
At 7:40 o'clock as the train bound for Montreal was pulling out of the station it is alleged that the four men crowded around several other men and that McSweeney placed his hand in a man's pocket when Chief O'Brien seized him. Inspector Walsh grabbed Donovan but the other two men made a get-away.

When brought to the police station and questioned they denied that they were acquainted with each other. McSweeney had in his possession six $10 bills. A quantity of morphine and a syringe were found in McSweeney's possession also.
Yesterday both men were bailed out, each being held under $500 for appearance in court today when the case was continued until one week from Wednesday.

Robbed of $100
William Farrell was arrested on the South common Tuesday night after being charged with robbing a man of $100. Farrell denied the allegation and when arraigned in police court he pleaded a plea of not guilty. At the request of the government the case was continued until July 18, Farrell being held under $1000 bonds for his appearance at that time.

Two More Suspects
James Clark and Henry Bourke were charged with drunkenness and the latter with carrying a pistol. The police claim that the pair were on the South common the night before the Fourth and relieved Kivel of what money he had on his person. Each was held under $300 bonds for a hearing next Tuesday.

Sailor Pleaded Guilty
James F. Maguire, a sailor, entered a plea of guilty to a complaint charging him with assault and battery on August Allen. The case was continued until Saturday for sentencing. The witness stand he testified that he was the young man to go on his own recognition until that time.

Stole From Infirmary
Anthony McCall denied that he stole a traveling bag and camera, the property of John C. Goodwin, but he took the bag because, he said, he needed it. Both young men were employed at the state infirmary at Tewksbury, and it is alleged that when McCall left there on the 20th the bag and camera were missing. McCall said he was willing to settle and in order that he might secure enough money to pay for the costs of court and make restitution to Goodwin the case was continued until Saturday.

Two Months in Jail
Ernest Brothers who appeared before the court several weeks ago and was found guilty of the larceny of a watch and chain, the property of Thomas J. McCall, was this morning sentenced to two months in jail. During the time that Brothers has been in jail awaiting sentence the court found that he had been convicted for the larceny of a watch in Springfield a short time ago and that at the present time the police of Barry, Vt., want him for larceny.

Tell Your Wife Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift corns or calluses off with fingers.

Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying, as after corns. This may sound like a dream to corn-pestered men and women who have been cutting, filing and wearing torturous plasters. Yes, Corns lift off and calluses peel off as if by magic.

A small bottle of freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops directly upon your corns or calluses and instantly the soreness disappears; then shortly the corn, or callus will be so loose that it lifts off.

Freezone dries instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep a tiny bottle handy on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

dangerous weapon was found on his person. It was a home-made, consisting of a bobbin with a round half of iron on the end, the ball weighing about a pound. When asked what he was doing with the weapon he told the court that he had been robbing the court and carried the weapon to protect himself against any more robbers that might tackle him. The court did not take much stock in the man's story, however, and after finding him guilty imposed a fine of $50.

Disturbing the Peace
Peter Genakopoulos and Peter Savopoulos got into a mixup at the corner of Market and Jefferson streets about 1:30 o'clock Tuesday night and quite a crowd had gathered to witness the scrap when Patrolman Crowe put in an appearance and placed the two principals under arrest. Both pleaded guilty and fines of $10 each were imposed.

Wet Down Her Neighbor
Mrs. George W. Bell, an elderly woman residing in Chelmsford, was charged with assault and battery. She entered a plea of guilty, but when the complainant's name was called, it was found that he was not in court. A woman who witnessed the affair informed the court that Mr. Bell and Mrs. Bell are neighbors and that Mrs. Bell had turned the hose on him. Mrs. Bell said that she had not been annoyed since she applied the hose. Inasmuch as the woman had entered a plea of guilty the court fled the case upon the payment of costs.

STEPS TO ACHIEVE IRISH INDEPENDENCE BEING THOUGHT
SAYS SINN FEINER

LONDON, July 5.—Darrell Figgis, one of the prominent Sinn Feiners lately released from prison, said in a speech at Killarney, Ireland, that steps to achieve Irish independence were being thought of and that the full policy would be disclosed at the proper time. Figgis, he said, the Sinn Feiners would appoint a constituent assembly and appeal to the peace conference at which England would not be the best-loved of conferees. If the conference failed they would see a sovereign Irish republic within two years.

K. OF C. REACH THE $5000 MARK

The peaceful aftermath of a victorious campaign best describes the scene at the Knights of Columbus campaign headquarters today. The campaign is officially closed, and a sum well on the better side of $5000 will be in the hands of the treasurer when the final details are straightened out. Today was spent in auditing the various amounts, and in receiving the odd contributions that are sure to come in after the real conclusion of the campaign. A number of the collection boxes have yet to be opened, and it will be a day or two before definite exact totals can be given out. The committee in charge of the campaign will meet as soon as the treasurer reports something definite to act upon, and then the final result will be given to the public.

Tuesday evening the members of the order enjoyed open house and, although there was nothing definite to report as to the campaign, they were informed of the general success of the affair, and congratulations were exchanged. Refreshments were served and a short musical program was given. Those taking part in the musical program were John Baxter, John McCardle, Thomas Tobin and others. George Briggs was the accompanist.

WORK RESUMED AT EAST ST. LOUIS TODAY

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 5.—Resumption of work after the holiday was accomplished today without any indication of a renewal of the race riots in which more than a score of negroes and several white persons were killed earlier in the week. A diminished number of negroes were on the streets returning to work. Hundreds have left town and soot of the big plants admitted that output would be curtailed thereby to some extent. Militiamen appeared to have the city adequately patrolled. A federal investigation of race riots was begun yesterday by Col. George H. Hunter, chief quartermaster of the

21,000 GERMANS CAPTURED

Russians Continue Successes
On Galician Front—Allies
Celebrate Fourth

Allied Shipping Losses for the Week Show Marked Decrease

American Independence day was celebrated enthusiastically not only in the United States, but also in England and France, as well as on the battle fronts. In Paris a battalion of the first American expeditionary force on its way to the battle front was the centre of the celebration. The soldiers of revolutionary Russia on the Fourth of July maintained their attempts to break through the Austro-German lines in eastern Galicia. Cheered by the reports of fighting during the first three days of July, General Brusilov's men continue their efforts, especially in the region of Brozovany, and are throwing fresh forces against the Russian positions.

Prisoners Exceed 19,000

During Sunday and Monday, the first two days of the new drive, the Russians captured 300 officers and 19,000 men, and on Wednesday probably added several more thousand to the total. Twenty-nine guns and 33 machine guns were taken from the Austro-Germans.

Violent artillery duels have been in progress on the Konchuk-Zlochoff sector, on the Stokhod, in eastern Galicia, and at Brodny, on the Galician-Volynian border.

In Champagne on the western front the German crown has made another desperate and fruitless effort to break the French lines northwest of Rheims. Attacking the French along an 11-mile front, the Germans made especially strong efforts around Cerny and Allieres and against the Calvaire plateau. The French repulsed all attacks with losses to the assailants. German Salient Taken After checking the Germans, the French took the initiative in a small operation east of Cerny and captured a strong German salient. German attacks on the left bank of the Meuse were repulsed.

Raid and patrol engagements have occupied the German and British further. Several Austrian attacks on the Carso south of Gorizia were checked by the Italians. Rome reports that German airplanes again have raided the English coast, this time attacking Harwich. British airplanes pursued the invaders and two enemy machines were brought down and a third was damaged. Eleven persons were killed and 30 injured by bombs dropped by the raiders.

Submarine Figures Lower

Allied efforts to check the submarine war were successful the past week, as the weekly statement of British losses shows a decrease of eight in the number of merchant ships sunk. Twenty ships—15 over 150 tons, and five less than 150 tons—were lost in comparison with 28 in both categories the previous week, and 22 in each of the two weeks preceding. In vessels of more than 150 tons sunk, the falling off is more marked, as there was a decrease of six.

BAY STATE CONFIDENT OF THE FUTURE

"We feel confident of the future because the result of our recent increased income," said President P. F. Sullivan of the Bay State Street Railway company at the announcement of the decision of the public service commission to put the new fare schedule into effect. "First, because we are assured of increased income; and second, because of the spirit of understanding and cooperation which we have met by the majority of the communities served by our road. With but one or two exceptions it was admitted by representatives of all those communities that we should have more money."

"The officers of the Bay State are not convinced that the increases are sufficient to meet all the company's needs, but they have agreed to make trial of the new rates and it is clearly understood by all the parties that if the resulting revenue proves insufficient an application may be made at the end of six months for a further increase in fares.

"When we ask the public to turn in and help us make a success of this six months' experiment, we have their interests in mind as well as our own. City officials can aid us materially by regulating jitney competition. We do not ask that the jitneys be abolished. All we ask for is a square deal. Unregulated jitneys divert from our treasury more than $300,000 a year."

"We are going into this experimental period with the feeling that we shall take special pains to acquaint the public with what we are doing. If operating costs go up we shall tell them that and if they go down it will be with special pleasure that we shall tell them that also. We are assuming that our business is the public's business and that inasmuch as it is the public's business the public should know all about it."

WERNER HORN BEGINS TERM IN PRISON

BOSTON, July 5.—Werner Horn, a German reservist, whose attempt in February, 1915, to destroy the Canadian Pacific railroad bridge across the St. Croix river at Vanceboro Me., was described by him as an act of war, left here today in charge of federal officers for Atlanta to begin an 18-month sentence. Horn was convicted in the United States district court two weeks ago of illegally transporting dynamite on a passenger train from New York to Vanceboro after the supreme court had denied his appeal in habeas corpus proceedings in which he set forth the claim that he was exempt from punishment in this country.

At the beginning of the war Horn proceeded from Guatemala to New York with the intention of returning to Germany to join his regiment. He

To Quickly Remove Ugly Hairs From Face

(Beauty Notes)

Beauty-destroying hairs are soon banished from the skin with the aid of a delicate paste, made by mixing some water with a little plain powdered deodorant. This is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed to remove the remaining deodorant. This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution should be used to be certain that it is deodorant you buy.

In order to obtain passage he went to the Canadian border and attempted to break the bridge and take out the shipments of war munitions to Great Britain and France.

EMPLOYEES SURPRISE HARRY DUNLAP

Mr. Harry Dunlap, treasurer of the A. G. Pollard Co., was pleasantly surprised this afternoon when the employees of the firm presented him a large American flag, similar to the one which was recently raised over the A. G. Pollard store in Merrimack street. At 12:30 the clerks of the store boarded two special cars in Merrimack street and departed for Mason's Corner in North Billerica. Upon the arrival there basket luncheon was enjoyed, and in the early part of the afternoon Mr. William W. Buzzell presented the flag to Mr. Dunlap on behalf of the clerks of the A. G. Pollard Co. Mr. Dunlap responded fittingly and expressed his gratitude at the thoughtfulness of the employees.

In the course of the afternoon a list of sporting events, including a baseball game and running races was carried out, and a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Those responsible directly for the affair were Miss Ella Aldrich and Mr. Paul Doherty. Next Thursday the annual outing of the A. G. Pollard Co. Employees Mutual Benefit association will be held at Nantasket beach.

HAIG PLANS BIG DRIVE NORTH OF ARRAS

COPENHAGEN, July 5.—Lieut. Gen. von Stein, Prussian minister of war and state, told a committee of the German reichstag yesterday, according to despatches reaching here, that a further British offensive was expected north of Arras where Gen. Haig apparently is preparing actions on a large scale. The minister said the abandonment of the Salenik campaign was improbable but he regarded the Italian offensive on the Isonzo and the Tyrol as shattered. His views of the Russian offensive are not reported if they were expressed.

The ministerial declarations regarding the working of the submarine campaign, about which the official Wolff news bureau cabled ample reports to the neutral press, were not the only matters before yesterday's meeting on the reichstag committee. The socialist

For, in the old days, tires not only cost motorists more per tire, but were also so far inferior to the present product, that the final cost—the cost per mile—was from 50 to 100 or more per cent. higher than you pay now.

United States Tires—the "Royal Cord", the "Nobby", the "Chain", the "U-See" and the "Plain",

- one for every need of price and use,
- produced by the largest rubber manufacturer in the world,
- produced by the most experienced the manufacturer in the world,
- produced by a time-tried, exclusive, patented, vulcanizing process,
- produced of only the most carefully selected materials,
- have so far eclipsed every other make of tire that
- United States Tires are famous for their mileage-giving qualities—their low cost per mile.

The proof?—the consistent and persistent tremendous sales increases of United States Tires.

organ Vorwaerts in its independent report of the "little reichstag" says Herr Ebert, the socialist, devoted considerable attention to the unsatisfactory conditions in the nutrition of the people and the prospect of an inadequate supply of fuel for the fourth war winter, which the Germans probably will be called upon to face.

Herr Erbsberger, the clerical leader, and Herr von Payer, radical, supported in general Herr Ebert's view of conditions and criticized the government's inefficient measures for dealing with the problem.

Representatives of various parties expressed divergent views on the peace question which also was discussed by the committee. Herr Ebert said the government could have peace without annexations and indemnities to all opponents and abandon separate overtures to Russia.

Herr Erbsberger said the formula of the Russian council of deputies was impossible and impractical. He warned the government representatives against awakening false optimism by their statements.

Herr von Payer said that further peace proffers would be harmful and tend to defeat the German object. The only thing to do, he said, was to hold out, meantime bolstering public sentiment by immediately beginning the work of democratizing the country.

Each session of the "little reichstag" and the debate in the Saxony diet threatening revolution unless reform is immediately undertaken, are rather suggestive preliminaries to the reichstag meeting beginning tomorrow.

Mrs. Thomas Boddy of 51 Starbird street has recently returned from visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis of Manchester, N. H.

A telephone alarm at 2:14 o'clock yesterday morning was for a fire in a pile of lumber at 201 East Merrimack street. Engine 4 responded and placed the fire under control before any serious damage was done. The blaze was caused by a person carrying a lighted firecracker into the pile.

Skyrockets were responsible for two small fires last night but in each case the damage was slight. At 8:35 o'clock a blaze in a rooming house at 33 Branch street extinguished a slight blaze on the roof of a house and at 9:56 o'clock the members of Hose 7 were called to 30 Charles street to extinguish a roof fire.

An outing under the auspices of the employees of the B. & M. car shops was held yesterday at Billerica, Billerica and the affair was attended by the employees and their families. A varied list of sports was carried out for adults and children and refreshments were served. The committee sponsoring the affair was headed by J. O'Brien, B. W. Kearney and A. J. Leclachere.

Considerable interest was caused in Merrimack square recently by the passing of an experimental trolley car belonging to the Worcester Polytechnic school. The car looked like a parlor car from the outside, and bears the name of the institution and the school seal on either side. Inside two rows of what resemble comfortable switchboards run the length of the car. Intricate electrical testing devices which are used for discovering "dead" spots in the car's rails formed the paraphernalia. The car visits nearly every city in the state during the summer, and in the winter is used by the students of the school for experimental courses in the electrical engineering.

ASSAILING THE PRESIDENT

Chairman Hinshaw of the national prohibition party is out in a bitter and unjustifiable attack upon President Wilson because the president asked the prohibition leaders not to delay the passage of the food bill by insisting upon the retention of the provisions affecting the manufacture of beer and light wines.

"We would undoubtedly have national prohibition within 30 days," says Hinshaw, "were it not for the interference of Woodrow Wilson coming to the rescue of the brewers in the final hour."

"He may lead the economic forces but he cannot lead the moral forces henceforth."

This is another example of the fanatical advocacy of a reform wholly regardless of the interest of the nation. The country is moving towards prohibition and it will reach that goal in due time, but the floutings of such men as Hinshaw will only injure the cause, just as the action of a few fanatical pickets at Washington are injuring the cause of woman suffrage. We are confident that the sensible men of the party do not approve of Hinshaw's intemperate language.

President Wilson has the understanding to know that the sudden overturning of an industry employing a vast number of people and in which a large amount of capital is invested would cause disorder and resentment in those states in which the liquor business is strong. The president's desire to hasten the passage of the food control bill is based upon the highest and most patriotic motives, and if Mr. Hinshaw considers the interests of the nation in war rather than his personal hobby, he will reach the same conclusion. The senators who have used the prohibition issue to delay the passage of the food bill, are not particularly in favor of prohibition. Their aim on the contrary is to delay the enactment of the measure and thus defeat its purpose. Mr. Hinshaw stands behind these men who are serving the kaiser instead of the United States.

Let prohibition be brought forward in a proper manner on the merits of the question, not as a rider to a measure to be carried by a resort to sharp practice which would have a reaction that would injure the nation at war and in all probability defeat the enforcement of the law. Drinking and the dissipation of liquor will be cut down as it should be during the war, but if President Wilson opposes total prohibition, he does so because there is a patriotic reason for so doing.

As to leading the moral forces, of the nation, President Wilson may be as strongly in favor of prohibition as Mr. Hinshaw, but he would not favor it at a time and in a manner that cannot fail to result in trouble and injury to the entire country by delaying the passage of the food bill while speculators pre-empt the crops not yet harvested. Let every great issue be settled separately after due deliberation and not by snap methods nor as a mere corollary to a proposition wholly distinct and separate.

UNJUST DRAFT ARRANGEMENT

It appears that the draft is to be made upon the basis of "population" in spite of the protest entered by Congressman Rogers and of the bill introduced by him and Senator Calder of New York.

This will be unfair to Lowell in two ways. In the first place it will greatly increase the number of men to be drafted in proportion to the number eligible and it will thus not only do an injustice to the men and their families, but it will tend to hamper the industries from which they will be drawn. Thus each city such as Lowell, which has a large population of aliens will pay the penalty for having so many foreign residents.

The decision of the government means that where there are many aliens who are not subject to draft, the young men who are eligible must make up the deficiency.

To make the draft fair for all parties, the term "population" in the law should be interpreted to mean the total number eligible under the registration law. To do anything else will be a rank injustice which should not stand in law. For example: If one city has 20 per cent aliens in the registration age and another has no aliens, and if both have to meet a draft call on the basis of "population," it is plain that one will be called upon for a percentage of its registered men that is 20 per cent higher than that of the other. That would be an injustice which would violate in principle at least the privileges of citizens guaranteed equal rights under the constitution. The city of Springfield would have little reason to object to a draft on the basis of population because it has but a very small alien population. Lowell and cities similarly made up would suffer from such an arrangement. Hence the protests.

THE GERMAN SPY PROBLEM

As now appears the German spy problem will be one of the most difficult with which this country will have to deal during the war. Some weeks ago it was learned that German spies had notified their home government of the orders issued for the sailing of Vice Admiral Sims' flotilla to British waters. Before the destroyers had cleared American waters, Germany knew they had sailed and she immediately arranged to have submarines lie in wait for them. Fortunately, the trap thus set did not work as the U-boats were unable to enter into any determined combat with the squadron of destroyers.

Not so, however, with the expeditionary force which has just landed in France. It appears that the Germans had full notice of the time of sailing and even the direction to be taken by the transports. Accordingly a squadron of submarines was sent to the appointed place of rendezvous, hoping to be able to send many of the transports to the bottom. Still another trap further west was laid for the Pershing forces but as a result of the keen vigilance and the quick action of the defensive forces, the submarines failed to sink a single vessel. That is gratifying of course, but the fact that is deplorable is that there are spies, perhaps trusted in high places, who are thus betraying the government and the nation to the enemy.

The problem that confronts this nation today is whether a single act even of preparation can be undertaken without having full information given to the enemy so that he can plan to counteract or defeat everything we do or attempt to do.

RUSSIA'S GREAT VICTORY

Russia has resumed fighting which is another victory over German intrigue and one largely due to President Wilson's appeal and the strong speeches of Mr. Root of the American mission.

Not only have the Russians resumed but they have done so with a whoop and a dash that landed them in possession of three lines of German trenches along an eighteen mile front. In addition they captured 10,000 prisoners and much war material. The attack was led by the heroic war minister, Alexander F. Kerensky, who happily lived to join in the rejoicing over the victory. It is to be hoped that this is but the first of a series of great victories. Truth and justice and the cause of world democracy have carried the day over German treachery and years of intrigue. But for Wilson and Root, Russia was gone irrevocably. Thus the cause of the Allies has been saved and the end of the war in favor of world freedom is assured.

GOOD WORK REWARDED

That banquet of the United States Cartridge company on Sunday evening was the only one of the kind ever held in this city so far as we know. It was made the occasion of the presentation by the company of large bonuses to the foremen and overseers. The company is paying very liberally for the great interest and vigilance shown by foremen and bosses in protecting its interests against many dangers.

The Cartridge company has been remarkably fortunate in escaping serious accidents during its great rush of work. This was due to the splendid organization in control and the continual vigilance of the heads of departments. That the company has thus generously shown its appreciation will undoubtedly cause the recipients of the bonuses to be even more enthusiastic in the discharge of their duties. The United States Cartridge company in the last three years has made Lowell prosperous.

SEEN AND HEARD

Let us be charitable and say that the commissioners are not to blame for what they don't know.

If some of the men holding lucrative positions at the city's expense had brains as big as their mouths they would be all right.

When the head of a department at city hall refuses to give a reporter any information concerning the work of his department, he is exercising deep poor judgment, for the reporter is the fellow who gets the news for the public and the commissioner is a public servant, even though he does command a chauffeur and automobile.

Sad eyes, that were patient and tender, and eyes that were steadfast and true, and warm with the unchanging splendor of courage no ill could subdue. Eyes dark with the dread of the morrow, and we for the day that was gone, the sleepless companions of sorrow, the watchers that witnessed the dawn. Eyes tired from the clamor of goading, and dim from the stress of the years, and hallowed by pain and foreboding, and strained by repression of tears. Sad eyes that were wearied and blighted, by visions of seiges and wars, now watch over a country united from the luminous slopes of the stars.

Flourishing Cape Gardens

I took a ride down through Plymouth and to the Cape Cod canal and to Pocommet the other day, the Rockland Standard's Roamer tells his readers. The day was fine and the roads were good and conditions were such to make the ride a very enjoyable one. I noticed on the trip that the gardens down on the Cape are considerably advanced over those in this immediate section. No doubt it is due to the softer air from the bay, but anyway they were a delight to the eyes and shows that the people of this section of the state are alive to the importance of gardens. The fine weather of the past few days has made a big improvement to the gardens.

In the war game, told the Memorial down at Plymouth something which seems to sound all right and ought to prove a labor savor to some other gardener. It is the simple matter of suffering bean poles and avoiding to some extent the rather troublesome hunt after the pods when the poles are set in the old style way, perpendicular. He said he was told to run his row of pole beans north and south, but the why of this was not clear to him, but what was clear is the idea of setting each pole with a slant of about 35 degrees to the northward. By doing this the pods, which mostly hang on the lower side of the poles and the fumbling after a mess for dinner will be made easier.

Trolley vs. Jitney

If the famous Joy line ever had anything on the Lawrence street line Saturday night, that fact was never made public. At quarter of ten that night, a Lawrence street car came into Merrimack square, and it was quickly filled with passengers and others, desirous of getting home. Everything went along in apple pie order, until the turnout on Church street was reached. It was then ten minutes of ten. Shortly after two other cars came along behind and after the three had remained there a few minutes two cars from "up above" came down. Then the passengers expected a start would be made, but many a start. The crews got off their cars and held a conference, and what was clear in twenty minutes delay the first car in charge of a crew from one of the others made a start. Upon reaching the corner of Lawrence street, the conductor gave a bell, and the car was brought to a stop. The crews again conferred, and finally the men who left the square after this, or until the writer got off at the corner of Rogers street, no more holdups were experienced. It took just thirty-five minutes to go from Merrimack square to the corner of Lawrence and Rogers street. Then they holler about patronizing jitneys.

Let Something Good Be Said When over the fair fame of friend or foe.

The shadow of disgrace shall fall: Instead Of words of blame, or proof of so and so.

Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow being yet May fall so low but love may lift.

Even the check of shame with tears Is wet, If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead But may awaken strong and glorified.

If something good be said.

And so I charge ye, by the thorny crown, And by the cross on which the Savior bled, And by your own soul's hope for fair renown, Let something good be said.

FISH AND GAME

Tuesday afternoon Simon B. Harris and Ryan Bros. of the Lowell Fish and Game association planted 6000 black bass in Baptist pond, South Chelmsford. The fish were received in three large cans from the state hatchery at Palmer, where they were hatched under the direction of Supt. Otis Monro.

The officers of the Lowell Fish and Game association are urging sportsmen to kill with rod or gun turtles, snakes, cats and house rats, which it is claimed are destroying birds' eggs of all kinds and also raising havoc with fish.

GOOD FOURTH OF JULY DINNERS SERVED AT LOCAL INSTITUTIONS YESTERDAY

In observance of the Fourth of July special menus were served in the various local institutions yesterday.

The inmates of the Chelmsford Street hospital were served a roast pork dinner with fixings, that included mashed potatoes, brown gravy, lemonade, ice cream, oranges, bananas and peaches, as well as assorted candy. During the day phonograph selections were given in the various wards, while outdoor sports were conducted.

At the Lowell jail in Thorncliffe street the dinner menu consisted of mackerel and green peas and other holiday dishes. In the afternoon the inmates were given their liberty in the yard and outdoor sports were enjoyed.

At the state infirmary in Tewksbury a hountful dinner was served, and a varied entertainment program was carried out during the day. In the morning outdoor sports were held, while in the afternoon concert numbers were given by an orchestra and talent of the institution. In the evening ice cream and peanuts were served.

Chicken and fixings constituted the dinner at the Middlesex County Training school in North Chelmsford yesterday. In the afternoon the strong team of the school defeated the West Chelmsford aggregation by a score of 5 to 0 in a very interesting baseball game.

The Fourth of July was also observed in a very elaborate manner at St. Peter's orphanage. French-American orphanage, Day Nursery, Children's home and Ayer home. In each institution a very appetizing dinner was served and games were played by the children.
